Name: _____   Period: _____

Voicethread Rubric

_____ Focus: (20%)
> You understand the task clearly.
> You have an original purpose for what you are presenting.
> You stay on topic by having all your evidence support your claim statement.

_____ Content: (20%)
> You exceed basic requirements in some way by adding extra multimedia pieces, such as photos, video or music.
> Your voicethread contains at least ___ or more slides.
> Your voicethread is dynamic with visuals, music, or video that connect to the Essential Question.

_____ Argument (20%)
> You use evidence persuasively to warrant your claim.
> You state a counter-argument and refute it clearly to strengthen your argument.
> Your voicethread thoughtfully considers multiple angles on the essential question.

_____ Style / Voice (20%)
> You know your intended audience and are speaking to them.
> Your speaking is in an appropriate and clear voice.
> Your voicethread uses comment feature to narrate story in a smooth and interesting manner.

_____ Organization (10%)
> Your slides are in a clear and effective order.
> You use each slide and connect it to your claim statement.
> You vary your transitions both within and between slides to make the voicethread easy to listen

_____ Mechanics (10%)
> You met all the assigned criteria.
> Your slides are thoroughly edited for grammar.

	Student	Teacher
Overall Grade:	_____	_____

Evaluation Scale

5: Excellent. Every subcategory is complete and in excellent form.
4: Good. Includes responses to every subcategory, with some not done completely or well.
3: Mediocre. Some subcategories are missing or minimally completed.
2: Needs a Lot of Work. Most subcategories are missing or minimally completed.
1: Unsatisfactory. Doesn't even minimally meet the assignment requirements.